My Professional Statement

As a collaborative and detail-oriented professional, I bring strong time management skills and a structured approach to team planning. I am passionate about testing system security and protecting user data, and I value privacy, continuous learning, and constructive collaboration to support tech companies in strengthening their cybersecurity posture.

– Benedikt Wiesner